*A green caterpillar called Ned
Had trouble in getting to bed.
He stayed up all night
Looked a terrible sight
As he shivered behind an old shed.*

*His friend, an old moth said, "Ned look
Why don't you try reading a book?
It might take a week
But it helps you to sleep
And I'm sure you'll be set off the hook."*

*Ned started to read every night
Sat under the glowworm's good light
And slowly, but surely
He started to slumber
So now it's sleep tight Ned, sleep tight!*
